PREAMBLE to the Patent for Crea- ting the Right Honourable CHARLES Earl of Orrery, Baron BOYLE of Marston, in the County of Somerset.

UO Splendidum magis est & honorificum inter Britannias Nostræ Proceres Locum tenere, eo magis fixum Nobis in Animo atq; statutum est, ne cui tantos honores designemus, a quo non diquid vicissim Splendoris ad ipsos etiam Nobilium Ordines redundet. Ab hac Sententia minime videbimus degredere, dum Prædilectum Nobis & per quam Fidelem Consanguineum & Consiliarium Carolum Comitem de Orrery in Regno Nostro Hiberniae huic optimatum Nostrorum Consilia adscribi jubemus. Et enim ea Stirpe ortus, quæ per Angliam Hiberniamque late diffusa plurimas Magnatum Propagint etiamnum jactat; queque Progeniem vel Literis Humanioribus, vel reconditarum rerum Scientia egregie florentem protulit. Ipse autem derivata ad se a Majoribus gloria, & domesticis exemplis excitatus, optimis disciplinis, ab ineunte usq; Aetate antimum imbutus atq; aluit. His Studiis impigre insuevit, his se oblectauit, ab his tamen ubi res Nostræ poscerent, facile se avocari passus est; & gliscente indies bello, ad obeunda Militiae Munia parem Animi ardorem attulit. Cum vero esse ei ingenium intelligeremus Civilibus etiam muneribus apprime idoneum, missus est a Nobis ad amplissimos Brabantia & Flandria Ordines cum liberis est summa rerum mandatis Legatus. Hanc Provinciam multa cum laude administravit, nec minus præclara dedit suæ in Negotiis Prudentia, quam in Acie virtutis documenta. Utroq; quidem Nomino cum aliquod Gratia Nostræ Testimonium habere debeat, hoc Nobis Visum est apitissimum, ut alterius Regni Nostrri Patricius Natus in hoc etiam meritum Honoris Gradum consequatur. Sciat, &c.

It is a Glorious and Honourable Thing to have a Place among the PEERS of our Kingdom of Great-Britain, so are we firmly determin'd to confer such great Honours on none but those who shall again add some Splendor to the Illustrious Order of our Nobility. Nor shall we seem to depart from this Resolution, when we call our Well-beloved and very Faithful Cousin and Councillor, CHARLES, Earl of Orrery, in Our Kingdom of IRELAND, to sit in the August Assembly of Our British Lords. For he sprung from that Stem, which having spread itself over England and Ireland, does at this Time boast of several Branches of Noblemen; and which has produc'd a Race, either Extraordinary for Human Literature, or highly Renown'd for their most profound Knowledge in Natural Philosophy. Excited by the Examples of his Family, and the Glory which he has deriv'd from his Ancestors, He has cultivated and adorn'd his Mind in the most useful Learning, even from his Youth. To these Studies he has diligently applied himself, with these He has been delighted; yet when our Affairs requir'd Him, he has suffer'd himself to be withdrawn from his Learned Retirement; and the War daily increasing, has express'd an equal Desire and Readiness to discharge the Employment of a Soldier. But when We understood that he had also a Genius capable of Managing Political Affairs, We sent him Our Envoy to the States of Brabant and Flanders, with full Commission to treat of the most Important Concerns. In the Administration of this Province he has approv'd himself with very great Praise, and has given as signal Instances of his Ability in Negotiations, as of his Military Valour. Since, indeed, on both Accounts, He is entitl'd to some Token of Our Favour, We have thought fit that He, who was Born a PEER in Our Kingdom of Ireland, should enjoy His deserved Degree of Honour in that of Great-Britain.
